References to the Education (Student Support) Regulations in this Memorandum are to the 2011 Regulations as amended for the 2015/16 Academic Year, but the provisions covered in this Memorandum will apply in 2016/17. New full-time students starting their courses from 1 August 2016 onwards, '2016 Cohort students', no longer qualify for maintenance grants. They instead qualify for a loan for living costs (maintenance loan) which for students on household incomes of £25,000 or less, is 10.3% higher than the total grant/loan support in 2015/16 (see table A1 above and table A6.)

Household Income Assessment

The income assessment for full year and final year rates of loans for living costs is calculated as follows:

Parental Home Rate: £1 reduction in loan for every complete £8.59 increase in income above £25,000.

London Rate: £1 reduction in loan for every complete £8.34 increase in income above £25,000.

Elsewhere Rate: £1 reduction in loan for every complete £8.49 increase in income above £25,000.

The income threshold for the minimum non-income assessed full rate of overseas loan is: £65,797.

The income thresholds for the minimum non-income assessed final year rates of loans are: £56,818 (Home), £67,193 (London), £60,684 (Elsewhere), and £62,518 (Overseas).

Assessed Contribution

Assessed contribution figures in tables A6, A9 and A11 are used to determine the amount of support where a 2016 cohort student has applied for loans for living costs and supplementary support or where there are two or more students in a household. The assessed contribution for the loan for living costs applies for a 2016 cohort student where the household income exceeds £42,875.

Assessed Contribution – Students Eligible for Benefits.

Assessed contribution figures in tables A7, A10 and A11 are used to determine the amount of support where a 2016 cohort student who is eligible for benefits has applied for loans for living costs and supplementary support or where there are two or more students in a household. The assessed contribution for the loan for living costs applies for a 2016 cohort student who is eligible for benefits where the household income exceeds £42,875.

Maintenance and Special Support Element of the Loan for Living Costs.

For 2016 cohort students entitled to benefits, the loan for living costs has a maintenance element and a special support element, the latter being a contribution towards the costs of books, travel, equipment and childcare. The special support element is disregarded by the Department for Work and Pensions as student income when calculating benefits. Students whose entitlement to loan for living costs exceeds the maximum maintenance element will receive additional loan as a special support element. Maximum maintenance and special support elements are set out in the table A3 below and at table A7:

TABLE A3: LOAN FOR LIVING COSTS FOR 2016 COHORT STUDENTS ELIGIBLE FOR BENEFITS: MAINTENANCE AND SPECIAL SUPPORT ELEMENTS

c) STUDENT SUPPORT FOR 2016 COHORT STUDENTS AGED 60 OR OVER ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE FIRST ACADEMIC YEAR OF THEIR COURSE.

New full-time students starting a course on or after 1 August 2016 who are aged 60 or over on the first day of the first academic year of their course, no longer qualify for special support grants in 2016/17. They will instead qualify for a means-tested loan for living costs towards the costs of books, travel, equipment and childcare. The loan for living costs is disregarded by the Department for Work and pensions as student income when calculating benefits.

2016 cohort students aged 60 or over on the first day of the first academic year of their course with household incomes of £25,000 or less qualify for the maximum loan for living costs in 2016/17. Students with household incomes above £25,000 lose £1 of loan for every complete £5.46 increase in income above £25,000 until a household income of £43,668 is reached where a minimum £50 loan is paid. Students on household incomes above £43,668 do not qualify for a loan for living costs.

The income assessment for loan for living costs for students aged 60 or over on the first day of the first academic year of their course is not added to the income assessment for supplementary grants (i.e. dependants' grants and travel grant) as part of the assessed contribution.

Table A8 covers loan for living costs rates for 2016 cohort students aged 60 or over on the first day of the first academic year of their course.

A5: SUPPORT FOR TUITION FEES.

2016 cohort students at publicly funded institutions will be able to apply for a non means-tested fee loan of up to £9,000 in 2016/17 depending upon the actual tuition fee for their course.

The maximum fee loan entitlement for courses at privately funded institutions in this situation will be £3,000

The maximum tuition fee payable in 2016/17, and the maximum fee loan entitlement, for sandwich placement years where the periods of full time study are in aggregate less than 10 weeks, will be £1,800 for courses at publicly funded institutions. English domiciled 2016 cohort students studying in Scotland and Northern Ireland in 2016/17 will be entitled to apply for the following fee loans where these differ from the support package available for study in England and Wales:

The maximum fee loan entitlement for sandwich placement years where the periods of full time study are in aggregate less than 10 weeks, will be £4,500 for courses at publicly funded institutions. The maximum fee loan entitlement for courses at privately funded institutions will be £3,000.

The maximum fee loan entitlement for study years at overseas institutions outside the Erasmus Scheme where the periods of full-time study at the UK institution are in aggregate less than 10 weeks, will be a maximum of £4,500 for courses at publicly funded institutions. The maximum fee loan entitlement for courses at privately funded institutions will be £3,000.

2016 cohort students undertaking Erasmus study or work placement years in Scotland and Northern Ireland in 2016/17 will be ineligible for a fee loan as the Erasmus fee waiver will continue to apply.

ACCESS AGREEMENTS.

Publicly funded institutions that intend to charge more than the basic annual amount for full time courses starting on or after 1 September 2012 (£6,000 in 2016/17) must have an Access Agreement approved by the Director of Fair Access to Higher Education. Access Agreements describe the arrangements that each institution has in place to promote access for students from low-income or other under-represented groups through outreach activities as well as the financial help that the institution will provide for such students. Eligibility criteria and types and amounts of support available will vary according to the particular institution. Regulations covering the maximum basic (£6,000) and higher (£9,000) tuition fees for full-time courses came into force on 1 September 2012.

of loan for every £8.34 of income until the amount they receive reaches 45.7% of the maximum amount (indicated at (+) in the table above), at which point there is no further reduction.

Elsewhere Rate - Students with household incomes above £25,000 up to and including £42,875 lose £1 of loan for every complete £5.496 of income above £25,000. For income in excess of £42,875 up to and including £62,182, students lose £1 of loan for every £8.49 of income until the amount they receive reaches 40.8% of the maximum amount (indicated at (+) in the table above), at which point there is no further reduction.

The loan for living costs is divided into two elements – the maintenance element and, for students on lower incomes a special support element for books, equipment, travel or childcare. The special support element is disregarded by DWP when calculating means-tested benefits.

The 'Assessed Contribution' is calculated for incomes above £42,875 – see table A10 of this Memorandum.

New full-time students starting a course on or after 1 August 2016 who are aged 60 or over on the first day of the first academic year of their course, no longer qualify for special support grants in 2016/17. They will instead qualify for a means-tested loan for living costs.

2016 cohort students aged 60 or over on the first day of the first academic year of their course with household incomes of £25,000 or less qualify for the maximum loan for living costs in 2016/17. Students with household incomes above £25,000 lose £1 of loan for every complete £5.46 increase in income above £25,000 until a household income of £43,668 is reached where a minimum £50 loan is paid. Students on household incomes above £43,668 do not qualify for a loan for living costs.

The income assessment for the loan for living costs for students aged 60 or over on the first day of the first academic year of their course is not added to the income assessment for supplementary grants (i.e. dependants' grants and travel grant) as part of the assessed contribution.

A9: 2016 COHORT STUDENTS (EXCLUDING STUDENTS ENTITLED TO BENEFITS AND STUDENTS AGED 60 OR OVER ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE FIRST ACADEMIC YEAR OF THEIR COURSE): ASSESSED CONTRIBUTION FOR THE LOAN FOR LIVING COSTS.

An assessed contribution will apply as follows:

Household income £42,875 or less - no assessed contribution;

Household income of more than £42,875 – an assessed contribution will apply.

The assessed contribution figures in table A9 on page 14 (which should be read in conjunction with table A6 of this Memorandum) are calculated as follows (case study for student living in the parental home with a household income of £44,000):

1) Calculate the amount of loan to be deducted from the maximum loan at a household income of £42,875. (The taper for the home rate of loan is 8.59). For the purposes of this calculation, this is known as the contribution disregard.

$$(\text{£}42,875 - \text{£}25,000) / 8.59 = \text{£}2,080 \text{ (rounded down)}$$

2) Calculate the amount of loan to be deducted (the income assessment in table A6 of this memorandum) from the maximum loan at a household income of £44,000 (the household income of the student in this case study)

$$(\text{£}44,000 - \text{£}25,000) / 8.59 = \text{£}2,211 \text{ (rounded down)}$$

3) Calculate the assessed contribution for a student living at home on a household income of £44,000 by deducting the contribution disregard from the income assessment.

$$\text{£}2,211 - \text{£}2,080 = \text{£}131$$

The same method of calculating assessed contributions for the loan for living costs will apply to 2016 cohort students living away from home and studying in London or living away from home and studying outside London. However, the taper for the London rate of loan for living costs is 8.34 and that for the elsewhere rate of loan 8.49.

In calculating the household income, an allowance of £1,130 may be made for a parent who is an eligible student or who holds a statutory award. The household income may also be reduced by £1,130 for each child wholly or mainly dependent on the student or the student's partner or each child (other than the student) who is wholly or mainly financially dependent upon the student's parent or the parent's partner whose income is being taken into account.

The total assessed contribution for a student is the assessed contribution from table A9 on the following page of this Memorandum added to the contribution for supplementary support (table A11). In total, this contribution must not exceed £6,210.

TABLE A11: 2016 COHORT STUDENTS: ASSESSMENT OF HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION FOR SUPPLEMENTARY INCOME-ASSESSED SUPPORT in 2016/17 (Long courses loan; grants for dependants; travel grant)

Assessments will be calculated as follows:

Household income £39,796 or less: no contribution

Household income of more than £39,796: contribution of £1 for each additional £8.97 of household income.

The maximum contribution is £6,210. In calculating the household income, an allowance of £1,130 may be made for a parent who is an eligible student or who holds a statutory award. The household income may also be reduced by £1,130 for each child wholly or mainly dependent on the student or the student's partner or each child (other than the student) who is wholly or mainly financially dependent upon the student's parent or the parent's partner whose income is being taken into account. The total assessed contribution for a student is the assessed contribution from this table added to the contribution to loan for living costs (set out in table A9, or for full-time students eligible for benefits, the contribution to loan for living costs in table A10). In total this contribution may not exceed £6,210.

The maximum fee loan entitlement for courses at privately funded institutions will be £3,000.

2012 cohort students undertaking Erasmus study or work placement years in Northern Ireland in 2016/17 will be ineligible for a fee loan as the Erasmus fee waiver will continue to apply.

ACCESS AGREEMENTS.

Publicly funded institutions that intend to charge more than the basic annual amount for full time courses starting on or after 1 September 2012 (£6,000 in 2016/17) must have an Access Agreement approved by the Director of Fair Access to Higher Education. Access Agreements describe the arrangements that each institution has in place to promote access for students from low-income or other under-represented groups through outreach activities as well as the financial help that the institution will provide for such students. Eligibility criteria and types and amounts of support available will vary according to the particular institution. Regulations covering the maximum basic (£6,000) and higher (£9,000) tuition fees for full-time courses came into force on 1 September 2012.

Assessments will be calculated as follows:

Household income £39,796 or less: no contribution

TABLE C6: 2009 COHORT STUDENTS: ASSESSMENT OF HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION FOR THE MEANS-TESTED ELEMENT OF THE LOAN FOR LIVING COSTS IN 2016/17.

Assessments will be calculated as follows:

Household income £50,778 or less: no contribution

Household income of more than £50,778: contribution of £1 for each additional £4.68 of household income until 72% of the full loan for living costs remains.

In calculating the household income, an allowance of £1,130 may be made for a parent who is an eligible student or who holds a statutory award. The household income may also be reduced by £1,130 for each child wholly or mainly dependent on the student or the student's partner or each child (other than the student) who is wholly or mainly financially dependent upon the student's parent or the parent's partner whose income is being taken into account.

TABLE C7: 2009 COHORT STUDENTS: ASSESSMENT OF HOUSEHOLD CONTRIBUTION FOR SUPPLEMENTARY INCOME-ASSESSED SUPPORT IN 2016/17 (long courses loan; grants for dependants; travel grant).

Assessments will be calculated as follows:

Household income £39,796 or less: no contribution
 Household income of more than £39,796: contribution of £1 for each additional £8.97 of household income.

The maximum contribution is £6,210. In calculating the household income, an allowance of £1,130 may be made for a parent who is an eligible student or who holds a statutory award. The household income may also be reduced by £1,130 for each child wholly or mainly dependent on the student or the student's partner or each child (other than the student) who is wholly or mainly financially dependent upon the student's parent or the parent's partner whose income is being taken into account. The total assessed contribution for a student is the assessed contribution from this table added to the contribution to loan for living costs (Table C6). In total this contribution may not exceed £6,210.

The amount of Fee Grant that a part-time student will receive depends on the rate at which the student studies their course each year; this is referred to as ‘intensity of study’. There are three bands of Fee Grant, each measured as a percentage of a full-time equivalent course with the Fee Grant amount increasing for higher intensity of study, in line with the bands shown in the table above.

The income disregards for students with partners and dependent children are £2,000 for a partner (where counted), £2,000 for the first dependent child, and £1,000 for each subsequent child.

Students starting part-time courses of initial teacher training on or after 1 September 2010 are eligible for the part-time support package.

H2: COURSE GRANT.

Part-time students who started their courses before September 2012 are eligible for a grant of up to £280 for books, travel and other expenditure relating to their course. This grant is income assessed, using the same thresholds as above, with the amount of course grant decreasing by £1 for every £8.84 of reckonable income above £26,030. Course Grant is not linked to the intensity rate at which a part-time student studies their course.

Access Agreements describe the arrangements that each institution has in place to promote access for students from low-income or other under-represented groups through outreach activities as well as the financial help that the institution will provide for such students. Eligibility criteria and types and amounts of support available will vary according to the particular institution. Regulations covering the maximum basic and higher tuition fees came into force on 1 September 2012.
